JAMES R. HURD WRITES FROM ITALY

Italy.

Hello, Folks:

It has been sometime since I last wrote you. Hope everyone is having much success in gathering your crops, although I realize you are short of labor, due to call of army service, for we are dependent upon you for our success.

Guess politics is very active back there now, due to the forthcoming election. We have very little time to study it, so we are depending on you to make the right decision, especially in our presidential campaign. We boys over here cannot understand why people would want to change presidents at a time like this. It seems to me that a change would be a setback on both fronts, home and war fronts. You know for yourself that anyone who spends time on the ground and build up No two persons in the world are too similar in thinking. So with the election build-up we have, let's all try to keep it so. How do we know what new president is? Do we know the background and future thoughts? Do we know that he is loyal to America in a time like this? The simple answer to this is NO! He might be a change better, but who knows? No one. He might be the best of men, but folks, let's not make a mistake which would backset everything we have done up to date. We must have this war won with our leadership and the tide rolling the same way. If you remember, the nation of France put the wrong man on the throne. So let's be sure when you make your decision in the forthcoming election.

Sincerely,
James R. Hurd.

LIBERTY NEWS

October 23, 1944.
Dear Editor:
Wonder how everyone is this pretty morning? It has been an early fall. It is real cool this morning and fire feels good. Everyone is so busy. Peanut pickers are running in every direction.
Peanuts are bringing a fine price. Lots of them were not gathered.
Cane will soon be ready to gather. Help is so hard to get, we have a bale of cotton to be picked but I doubt if it is ever picked, as I do not see how we can be able to pick it. The Army is trying to call all the boys. Corn in the field, no one to gather it, so it will have to rot. It is bad, but they say there will be plenty anyway. We have ten acres of peanuts. They will be a loss, hogs may get them. They are worth too much to let hogs eat them.

It will be a real loss.

We see the school bus is full this morning.
Todd Boland, Pete Foley, Mike Bryan, Waylon Messick and Felix Foley left this morning for Anniston to be examined for service.

On Tuesday of last week Frances Boland and her mother, of Columbus, Ga., ran down to spend the day.
While here they accompanied by the writer, motored down to S. H. Boland's.

Sunday morning, Mrs. J.
S. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs.
Curry Messick, Mrs. and Clarence Hancey, AMM
3-C, Mrs. Cecil Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Dot Bryan dined with Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Boland.

On Sunday of last week, Mr. Gus and Mr. and Mrs.
Mose Grimes called by for a short visit. It is fine to have friends come to see you.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Hayward Taylor. We bow in sorrow with those who have lost loved ones.
Will close, with best regards to all. Do not forget the old.

It is delightful to have true gains, but man needs food if he is to grow and to work. That is spiritually, for he must have the needed nourishment of life here also.

Jesus when tempted (Luke 4:4) because He was hungry said beyond the temporal need, and declared that life should be controlled by a higher principle. The spiritual has a place of supremacy over the physical in the life of the Christian man or woman. The body with its desires is to be subject to the definite control of the spirit, which takes its orders from God.

The explanation of the awful alcoholic debauchery of our day is found right here. Men have given their bodies the supreme authority and they are driven by the lusts of their flesh. What they need more than legal reform or restriction of sale of liquor (and we believe in both) is the regeneration of their souls by the grace of God in Christ Jesus.
Let us bring them the gospel.
John 6:35 makes known the fact that Jesus, the bread of life, satisfies every need of men. Every normal hunger and thirst find full satisfaction in Him. Have you tried Him as the One to meet the need of your hungry heart?

III. Spiritual Service (Rom. 12:1, 2).
"Reasonable service," says the Authorized Version; "spiritual service," says the Revised Version. Both are right. The man who is really reasonable will be spiritual and will render to God a sacrificial service.
Note that it is a "living sacrifice" that is said to be "holy, acceptable to God." This is not a case of a single act of deep devotion (great as that may be), but a going on in the daily walk to live for Christ. That calls for grace and power, and He is ready and willing to give both to each of His children.

That experience with God means a non-conformity to the world, which is too little spoken of and less practiced in the church today. The one who professes to follow Christ is simply not to be conformed to the ways of this wicked world. There is to be a completely transforming experience of the grace of God, that takes you out of this world while you are still in it.
IV. Spiritual Walk (Rom. 13:12-14).

Christians are the children of the morning. They walk in the light (I John 1:7). This world walks in darkness. No one needs any argument to prove that point—just look about you.

The deeds of darkness are evil deeds, and men dwell in darkness because they love evil (John 3:19).
That means that the children of light must walk circumspectly and
"becomingly" (that's a good word) in this world. Thus we may attract others out of the darkness into the light, so that they too may put aside
"reveling and drunkenness," yes, and also "strife and jealousy."
These go together.

The way to victory is to be clothed with the Lord Jesus and His righteousness (vs. 14). That is a real
"armor of light" with which we may be protected.

Note also that we are studiously to avoid making any provision for the desires of the flesh. Put such things away, and with them will go the temptation to use them. Some professing Christians need to heed this word by destroying some beverages which they may have on hand—just to give one example.

THE CHRISTIAN MOTIVE FOR LIVING

International Temperance Sunday LESSON TEXT—Psalm 4:5-9; Luke 4:4; John 6:35; Romans 12:1, 2; 13:12-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—See those things which are above.—Colossians 3:1.

Disciplined living should be the goal of each of us. Life is not to be lived carelessly, influenced by chance events or passing impulses.
Such discipline of life would keep men from the temptations which lead them into intemperance and sin.

A life can be properly disciplined, only as it is controlled by Christian principles. Such a life has—
I. Spiritual Gladness (Ps. 4:5-9).
The psalmist had faced the distressing questioning of men who derided him for his faith. They were unbelievers who demanded of him what good his religion did (vs. 6).
He has an answer, and it is the testimony of his own experience.

Those around him sought gladness in the harvest of grain and in the wine which was supposed to give a lift to their spirits. This was their joy. Well, the man of God had something infinitely superior. He had gladness in his spirit. It was not dependent on outward circumstances—it was within.

Then note, too, that it did not rest on something that happened, or on some fellow man. "Thou (God) hast put gladness in my heart."
That means real joy and satisfaction.
II. Spiritual Food (Luke 4:4; John 6:35).

It is delightful to have true
gains, but man needs food if he
spiritually, for he must have the
needed nourishment of life here
also.

Jesus when tempted (Luke 4:4)
because He was hungry said be-
higher principle. The spiritual has
man or woman. The body with its
finite control of the spirit, which
takes its orders from God.

The explanation of the awful al-
right here. Men have given their
flesh. What they need more than
legal reform or restriction of sale
is the regeneration of their souls by
the grace of God in Christ Jesus.
Let us bring them the gospel.
John 6:35 makes known the fact
that Jesus, the bread of life, satisfies
every need of men. Every normal hunger and thirst find full satisfaction in Him. Have you tried
Him as the One to meet the need of
your hungry heart?

III. Spiritual Service (Rom. 12:1, 2).
"Reasonable service," says the Authorized Version; "spiritual service," says the Revised Version. Both are right. The man who is really
reasonable will be spiritual and will
render to God a sacrificial service.
Note that it is a "living sacrifice"
that is said to be "holy, ac-
of a single act of deep devotion (great as that may be), but a going on in the daily walk to live for
power, and He is ready and willing
to give both to each of His children.

That experience with God means
a non-conformity to the world,
less practiced in the church to-
day. The one who professes to follow Christ is simply not to be con-
formed to the ways of this wicked
transforming experience of the
grace of God, that takes you out of this world while you are still in it.
IV. Spiritual Walk (Rom. 13:12-14).

Christians are the children of the morning. They walk in the light (I
darkness. No one needs any argument to prove that point—just look
about you.

deeds, and men dwell in darkness
because they love evil (John 3:19).
That means that the children of
light must walk circumspectly and
"becomingly" (that's a good word)
in this world. Thus we may attract
light, so that they too may put aside
"reveling and drunkenness," yes,
and also "strife and jealousy."
These go together.

The way to victory is to be
"armor of light" with which we may be protected.

Note also that we are studiously
to avoid making any provision for
the desires of the flesh. Put such
things away, and with them will go
the temptation to use them. Some
professing Christians need to heed
this word by destroying some
beverages which they may have on
hand—just to give one example.

Important Announcement!

THIS IS TO INFORM THE GOOD PEOPLE OF ELBA AND VICINITY THAT WE HAVE SOLD OUR BUSINESS IN ELBA TO MR. FLOURNOY WHITMAN, WHO IS NOW CONSTRUCTING AN ICE PLANT, MEAT CURING AND FROZEN FOODS LOCKER PLANT IN THE CITY OF ELBA.

THIS TRANSFER TAKES PLACE IMMEDIATELY THOUGH WE HAVE AGREED TO KEEP OUR OLD PLACE OF BUSINESS OPEN UNTIL NOVEMBER 1st, WHEN MR. WHITMAN WILL TAKE OVER. HOWEVER, MR. JIM BOWERS WILL REMAIN ON DUTY UNTIL NOV. 15th, TO TAKE CARE OF OUR INTERESTS, BUT AFTER THAT DATE MR. WHITMAN WILL ASSUME CHARGE OF ALL ACTIVITIES WE HAVE HERETOFORE ENGAGED IN—IN ELBA.

WE WISH TO STRESS TO ALL OUR CUSTOMERS WHO STILL HAVE MEAT STORED IN OUR STORAGE THAT THIS YEAR YOU MUST COMPLY WITH YOUR CONTRACT AND

Remove All Meat From Meat Curing Room By the First Day of November

AS THIS IS THE LAST DAY OF OUR AGREEMENT WITH YOU AND MEAT LEFT IN STORAGE AFTER THAT DATE WILL BE ASSESSED EXTRA CHARGES AT THE RATE OF 50c PER DAY.

THIS PROMPT REMOVAL IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY AS MR. WHITMAN PLANS TO REMOVE AND INSTALL REFRIGERATION MACHINERY USED BY US IN OUR OLD MEAT CURING ROOM, IN HIS PLANT NOW IN CONSTRUCTION SO AS TO BE ABLE TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR MEAT THE COMING SEASON.

MR. JIM BOWERS WILL BE ON HAND TO CHECK OUT YOUR MEAT TO YOU AND TO COLLECT AND RECEIPT YOU FOR ALL BALANCES DUE US ON THIS YEAR'S SERVICE.

WE SINCERELY REGRET THIS CHANGE IN OUR PLANS, BUT IT MUST BE EVIDENT TO ANY THINKING PERSON THAT THE TOWN OF ELBA AND TRADE TERRITORY IS TOO SMALL TO SUPPORT TWO PLANTS OF THIS KIND, AND WE FEEL THAT IT WAS TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COMMUNITY AS WELL AS MR. WHITMAN AND MYSELF THAT WE GET TOGETHER ON A COMPROMISE BASIS. THIS WE HAVE DONE AND I TRUST THAT EVERYBODY CONCERNED WILL COOPERATE WITH US IN MAKING THIS TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP AS PAINLESS AS POSSIBLE.

WE WISH TO THANK ALL OUR GOOD FRIENDS OF ELBA AND VICINITY FOR THE GOOD WILL AND BUSINESS ACCORDED US DURING THE NINE YEARS THAT WE HAVE CONDUCTED OUR BUSINESS HERE, AND WE REGRET VERY MUCH THAT FORCE OF CIRCUMSTANCES COMPELLED US TO CHANGE OUR PLANS AND LIQUIDATE OUR BUSINESS.
